

Education and Training Opportunities

Clinical Tobacco Intervention Program for healthcare professionals in any setting

This is an online course offered through the BC Cancer Agency, focused on tobacco prevention and intervention. The course module touches on: health consequences of tobacco use; tobacco dependence and addiction; principles of clinical tobacco intervention; the 5 “A’s” of clinical tobacco intervention; tobacco cessation medications; and special population considerations.

For additional information reference: tobaccoed.org/ctip/.

Motivational Interviewing Training

Empowering Change is a company that offers motivational interviewing, case and leadership training both within Canada and globally. Specific to motivational interviewing they offer in-person, online and refresher training.

For additional information reference: empoweringchange.ca.

Nurses and Other Health Care Professionals...

- ...Helping Clients Quit Smoking
- ...Supporting Tobacco Use Cessation with Mental Illness and Concurrent Addiction
- ...Who Smoke

For additional information reference: elearning.rnao.ca.

PACT: Online cessation training for healthcare professionals

The Partnership to Assist with Cessation of Tobacco (PACT) group provides healthcare professionals with the opportunity to further educate themselves on tobacco cessation strategies via an online course and various workshops.

For additional information reference: makeapact.ca/content/health-care.

TEACH Certificate Program

The Training Enhancement in Applied Cessation Counseling and Health (TEACH) Certificate Program is a knowledge translation project meant to enhance a practitioner’s skill set for interventions in tobacco cessation. A Manitoba TEACH Certificate is currently being developed.

For additional information reference: www.nicotinedependenceclinic.com.

Resources

The Lung Association. (2015). Continuing Education. Retrieved from <http://www.quitnow.ca/helping-others-quit/continuing-education#online-training-courses>

Empowering Change. (n.d.). Empowering Change Training. Retrieved from <http://empoweringchange.ca>