Hydro	$	$
Other (Specify): _____	$	$
Rent Payable	$	$
Less *Rent Discount (if any) — see Section D	$	$
Actual Amount Tenant Must Pay	$	$

The Rent Payable is increased by: $ _____ or ____%.

The rent cannot be increased unless written notice of at least 3 months is given to the tenant. For non-exempt rental units, the maximum increase permitted by the regulations without making an application to the Residential Tenancies Branch is ____%.

The landlord has applied for an increase above the maximum: Yes No

If the unit is exempt from any part of The Residential Tenancies Act state reason(s): _____

D. *Rent Discount (Complete this section if there is a rent discount.)

Discount is the same as last year's or increased by $_____.

Discount is reduced by $_____.

Discount is removed.

The proposed Rent Payable is subject to an application to the Residential Tenancies Branch for an above-guideline rent increase. The discount may be reduced or removed depending on the final decision on the landlord's application. In any event, the Actual Amount Tenant Must Pay will not exceed $_____.

Note: A landlord is not required to offer a rent discount, but if a discount is given, it must be provided for in a written agreement. Reducing or removing a rent discount is not considered a rent increase under The Residential Tenancies Act. However, an unconditional discount cannot be reduced or removed unless the tenant receives written notice of at least 3 months. If an agreement providing for a discount is for a fixed term, a landlord cannot reduce or remove an unconditional discount during the term of the agreement. If a discount is subject to a condition, e.g. paying the rent on time, the landlord can withdraw it without notice if the tenant does not meet the condition.

The receipt of this notice by the Residential Tenancies Branch does not mean that the rent increase is approved. The increase may be subject to review by the Branch.

F. Tenant Comment/Objection — Rent Increase on Non-Exempt Unit

When landlords apply for a rent increase above the maximum, the Branch gives tenants an opportunity to comment in writing about the application as part of the review process.

When landlords increase rent by an amount that is equal to or less than the guideline shown in Section C, tenants can file a written objection to the rent increase if they do not think the increase is justified for one of the following reasons:

- (a) the landlord is not maintaining the rental unit or residential complex;
- (b) the landlord has reduced or withdrawn a service or facility;
- (c) the landlord is not meeting any other obligation under your tenancy agreement or the Act;
- (d) you believe the landlord's costs have not increased.

To object to a rent increase that is equal to or less than the guideline, send a letter to the Branch indicating which of the above reasons applies and explaining why. The Branch must receive your letter not later than 60 days before the date your rent is to increase.

Send your objection to: The Residential Tenancies Branch, 1700-155 Carlton Street, Winnipeg MB R3C 3H8
