

Mandatory Accessibility Training

for ALL STAFF

All organizations in Manitoba are required to provide training on the Accessible Information and Communication Standard under The Accessibility for Manitobans Act.

Accessibility standards are the building blocks for making real, measurable and effective changes to accessibility.

We all have a role to play in removing and preventing barriers to accessibility!

ALL STAFF (including management) must complete the mandatory training

Scan the code to access the training module

