

THIRD PARTY CONSULTATION PROCESS FLOW CHART

PLEASE NOTE:
 * This document is supplemental to the Request for Access Response Coordination Process Flow Chart.
 The initial 45-day response time limit may be affected by the Third Party consultation process. Extensions may be warranted.

FOOTNOTES:

1. ORG.1411.PR.001 Request for Access Response Coordination Process and Flow Chart
2. Third party has 20 days to provide public body written representations.
3. The applicant is notified that an access decision will be made within 30 days after giving the Third Party notice. This may affect the public body's original response time.
4. No access decision can be made prior to when the written representations are received from the Third Party or 21 days, whichever is sooner.
5. The Third Party has 21 days to make a complaint after notice of the access decision is given and must notify the Public Body of the complaint. However, if no notice is provided by the Third Party, contact the Ombudsman's office to confirm that no complaint has been made.
6. The Ombudsman will oversee the investigation process.
